

Westbury Parish Council
Remote Meeting Standing Orders

Adopted at its meeting on 13th May 2020

- a. When regulations permit, the “place” where a meeting is held, or to be held, may include reference to more than one place including electronic, digital or virtual locations such as internet locations, web addresses or conference call telephone numbers.
- b. For the purposes of any such meetings, a councillor (a “member in remote attendance”) attends the meeting at any time if all of the conditions in (c) are satisfied.
- c. Those conditions are that the member in remote attendance is able at that time:
 - i. to hear, and where practicable see, and be so heard and, where practicable, be seen by, the other members in attendance,
 - ii. to hear, and where practicable see, and be so heard and, where practicable, be seen by, any members of the public entitled to attend the meeting in order to exercise a right to speak at the meeting, and
 - iii. to be so heard and, where practicable, be seen by any other members of the public attending the meeting.
- d. Any reference to a member, or a member of the public, attending a meeting includes that person attending by remote access.
- e. The agenda will include the remote meeting invitation and joining instructions will be displayed on the parish council website.
- f. All non-confidential meeting papers will be accessible via the parish council website.
- g. Guidance on how to use any software necessary for remote attendance at any such meetings will be available to all attendees.
- h. A person requesting to speak may raise a hand either physically via video link, or via any specific functionality provided by the conference software in use. The chairman will outline the procedure at the beginning of any such meetings.
- i. For the purposes of voting, “a show of hands” may include the methods defined by (g). If a show of hands is not deemed to be clear enough, at the request of any councillor or the clerk, the chairman will call the name of each attending councillor in turn and request them to state whether they support a proposal, oppose a proposal or abstain.
- j. If a member in remote attendance is required to leave the meeting, owing to a disclosable pecuniary interest, or another interest as set out in the council’s code of conduct, in a matter being considered at a meeting, that member must log out from the remote meeting for a period agreed with the chairman or clerk, to allow discussion to continue without them. Once the agreed time has elapsed, or if notified by the chairman or clerk via email or other remote messaging, the member should reconnect to the same meeting.
